New Team Member Ordained to The Priesthood

Next Tuesday, 14th November, is the feast of Saint Lawrence O'Toole, the patron of our diocese. This day also marks the ordination to the priesthood of two young men for our diocese, Bill O'Shaughnessy and James Daly. We are blessed to have had Bill join our team in the recent past and he will remain with us into the foreseeable future. Bill hails from Castledermot, Co. Kildare and he has worked as a deacon for the last year in St. Matthews Church, Ballyfermot. It is a mark of trust in our team and parishioners that the Archbishop has entrusted a newly ordained Priest to our care. Bill will be ordained at 11am in the Pro Cathedral and will celebrate his first Mass in Castledermot on Wednesday, 15th November, at 7.00pm. Having had a couple of weeks to 'recover' Bill will join us fulltime from the First Sunday of Advent. He will be available that weekend to offer his blessing of the newly ordained after Masses.

Please keep Bill in your prayers during these last days of preparation and pray for his fruitful ministry with us for many years to come.

All our parishioners are welcome to attend the ordination.
